International Grain Code, 1991 Edition

International Grain Code, 1991 Edition

The Maritime Safety Committee, at its 59th session (May 1991), adopted a new International Grain Code. This replaced the original chapter VI of the 1974 SOLAS Convention, which contained detailed regulations on the carriage of grain in bulk, with more general requirements and placed the detailed provisions on grain in a separate mandatory code.