

Protractor Weems & Plath

Protractor Weems & Plath

An updated version of the Breton plotter or Portland plotter, the Weems protractor has a moving compass rose that can be used for plotting a course or a bearing, measuring the distance between two points, plotting a position on the map or determining the position coordinates.

Pencil and sharpener are included.

Weight: 181 g

Dimensions: 15 "x 5" (381 x 127 mm)